Confirmation Small Groups

Small groups are a place for our teens to talk about their faith, learn more about the Sacrament of Confirmation, and answer any questions or doubts they might have. Each group of teens has a facilitator to run the meetings, but the focus is on peer-to-peer discussion. Small groups meet six times during the school year at St. Hubert's. Exact dates of meetings will be set by small group facilitators and will be given out to the candidates at their first meeting.

Candidates can select their preferences, which are used to form the groups. Each candidate chooses either Sunday afternoon or Wednesday evening meetings – they may also indicate whether they prefer to start in the fall or winter.
