5 Simple Tips On How To Make Every Day Holy
By Philip Kosloski June 26, 2017

Struggling to dedicate your life to God? Try these simple holy habits.
Life is busy. We are constantly tugged and pulled by various obligations — family, work, and community. It never seems to end and when we go to Mass on Sunday, we are reminded of our own failure to live each day under God's inspiration. We forget to pray and life never stops to let us catch up. What should we do to keep it from passing us by?

Here are five simple tips that can help the weary soul reclaim each day and dedicate it to God. Holiness is much easier to attain if we stop putting so much pressure on ourselves and simply open our heart in little ways each day.

1. Pray immediately after waking up
Saint Josemaria Escriva called this the "heroic minute" and wrote in The Way, "Many good Christians develop the habit of giving their first thought of the day to God. The 'heroic minute' follows: it facilitates the Morning Offering and getting the day off to a good start. The heroic minute. It is the time fixed for getting up. Without hesitation: a supernatural reflection and … up. The heroic minute: here you have a mortification that strengthens your will and does no harm to your body. If, with God's help, you conquer yourself, you will be well ahead for the rest of the day. It's so discouraging to find oneself beaten at the first skirmish." It is an extremely simple way to start your day off on the right foot, but also one of the hardest.

2. Schedule five minutes to pray during the day
Again, nothing earth shattering, but something that we too often forget. The important part about this is to schedule time for prayer. It can be five minutes, 15 minutes or even 30 minutes. Whatever it is, the key is to block off that time in your daily schedule and not let anything touch it. This can be done at work or at home (or on the road). Schedule it and make it a recurring event every day.

3. Pray the "Jesus Prayer"
Another way to incorporate God into your everyday life is to recite the short "Jesus Prayer." The Catechism describes this ancient prayer like this: "This simple invocation of faith developed in the tradition of prayer under many forms in East and West. The most usual formulation, transmitted by the spiritual writers of the Sinai, Syria, and Mt. Athos, is the invocation, 'Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us sinners.' It combines the Christological hymn of Philippians 2:6-11 with the cry of the publican and the blind men begging for light. By it the heart is opened to human wretchedness and the Savior's mercy" (CCC 2667). Saying this prayer over and over again is a great way to meditate on the beauty and mercy of God. It hardly takes a few seconds to say, but packs a great spiritual punch!

4. Carry a rosary with you wherever you go
You don't even have to pray the rosary, just carry one in your pocket or purse. This might seem odd, but it can be a source of inspiration or consolation throughout the day. You might reach into your pocket to get your keys and pull out a rosary instead. Or you might be rummaging through your purse and find your rosary. It is a simple reminder of God and may serve as a reminder to pray at a moment you need God the most. Rosaries were the first "fidget spinners"!

5. Pray before going to bed
If you started off the day with God, the only way to end it is with God. Prayers at bedtime don't have to be complex, but should generally revolve around thanksgiving. Be thankful for what God has given you this day and make a resolution to do better tomorrow. Many of the saints practiced different variations of this bedtime ritual and all greatly benefited from it.

Philip Kosloski is a husband and father of five, and staff writer at Aleteia. He also writes for The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network (Apostleship of Prayer).

Pastoral/Outreach

Prayer Chain: St. Hubert prayer chain consists of a group of people who pray individually in their homes for special prayer requests received by fellow parishioners. The power of prayer is tremendous! If you would like to join our prayer chain or have a special prayer request, contact Kathy at momaburke@gmail.com or the parish office.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick: The Anointing of the Sick is not a sacrament for only those who are at the point of death. Anyone who is in danger of death from illness, surgery or old age is able to receive the sacrament. Call the parish office at 952-934-9106 and ask for a priest.

Homebound Communion: If you or a loved one is unable to come to Mass, we have homebound ministers who can bring communion to your home on Tuesdays. Contact Diane at 952-374-5049 or diane.potts@sthubert.org to arrange for visits from our homebound ministers.

Hospital or nursing home patients: Churches are no longer notified by a hospital or nursing home when a parishioner is admitted unless the person requests it. If you or a family member are in the hospital or nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the pastoral ministry staff, please call the parish office at 952-934-9106.

There is a group of women and men in our parish who are dedicated to our funeral lunch ministry. We are always in NEED of more "helping hands" to carry on this caring presence. If you are feeling "called" to work at a funeral or if you would be willing to provide a salad or dessert, please call Betty Lucas at 952-300-8111. Thank you!

Rosary: Did you know a group of people meet in the adoration chapel every Saturday morning at 8:30 AM, following morning Mass, to pray all decades of the rosary? No registration or knowledge of the rosary is necessary. Just come when you can and stay as long as you can.

Volunteers Needed

Love INC has embarked on a summer lunch program working with District 112 to feed children in need in the District who rely on the schools to provide most of their nutrition during the school year. There is always a period of learning when something new happens and this is a new program for everyone involved. Something we have learned quickly is that WE NEED MORE VOLUNTEERS. Volunteers can go to our website (loveincecc.org) and sign up through our Help us feed children in need this summer! link. Once there they will see there are lots of spaces to serve open. Two to four (2-4) volunteers are needed from 12:15 to 2:00 PM (at the very latest) every day for the rest of the summer. The lunches will be served at the Community Center Pavilion at the park on Riverside Avenue.
