

ART

www.artsmia.org

MATH

<http://www.eduplace.com/kids/mw/> This is the web site for the math series that we use in our school. It has test prep questions and great help that students might need!

<http://www.aplusmath.com> Great to use for practicing flashcards.

<http://www.multiplication.com> Many great interactive games to practice multiplication facts.

<http://www.brainchild.com/gen/taketest.asp>

<http://www.mathplayground.com>

<http://www.mathmastery.com/cyberchallenge/>

<http://www.funbrain.com/math>

MUSIC

<http://www.metronomeonline.com/> An online metronome ideal for quick and easy use while practicing music.

This music tool helps with your rhythm as well as tempo selections and it is always available for free to all students.

<http://musictheory.net/> Music theory lessons, trainers, downloads sections- ALL FREE! The best section for beginning musicians to improve the skill of reading music is the "Note Trainer" section found in the Trainers menu. More advanced opportunities exist by using scale trainer and the interval ear trainer sections, for example.

<http://www.kidsbookshelf.com/gsfk/instruments.asp> Great Sites for Kids is an excellent mix of music links/resources specifically geared toward the younger audience. Also includes links to other subject areas.

<http://www.smithsonianjazz.org/Smithsonian> Jazz; LIVE it, LEARN it, LOVE it! The Education section of this website provides interactive, age-specific lessons and resources about jazz music and musicians.

<http://www.pbs.org/jazz/index.htm> PBS: JAZZ: A Film by Ken Burns A plethora of information... here's just a few areas of focus of the website. Jazz in Time: "Pick a time period to place jazz against the backdrop of American history." Jazz Lounge: "Learn how to be a jazz master by selection from several jazz styles." Musical Notes: "Choose from the artists, songs or instruments to find out more- discographies, buyer's assistant, recoding spotlights.

LANGUAGE ARTS/READING

www.readwritethink.org

<http://www.discovery.com> Puzzlemaker is a great way for kids to practice spelling words.

<http://www.scholastic.com> Homework Hub has some great activities for practicing spelling words and other things.

www.vocabulary-workshop-answers.com

<http://www.manatee.k12.fl.us/sites/elementary/palmasola/rcmi1.htm>-Main Idea

http://www.harcourtschool.com/activity_collections_preview/predict_outcomes/3_predict.html- Making Predictions

<http://www.manatee.k12.fl.us/sites/elementary/palmasola/ccinfer.htm>- Context Clues

<http://www.funbrain.com/grammar/index.html>- Grammar Fun

HANDWRITING

www.donnayoung.org/penmanship/index.htm (great handwriting practice sheets and handwriting paper generator)

SOCIAL STUDIES

<http://www.cloudnet.com/~edrbsass/edmin.htm#resources> A variety of different websites relating to Minnesota History.

<http://www.leg.state.mn.us/youth/teachers.asp> A fun site filled with activities and lessons for teachers and students about our Minnesota State Legislature.

<http://www.mnhs.org/index.htm> A great resource for anyone wanting to learn about Minnesota History. It also provides you with wealth of information about upcoming events or educational activities for your school or family to partake in.

<http://nationalgeographic.com/siteindex/education.html>

MISCELLANEOUS

<http://www.tpt.org/education/index.html>

<http://www.pbs.org> Has lesson plans for various subject areas and a various activities.

<http://www.infoplease.com/people.html> Great source for biographical information on thousands of famous people.

<http://www.tolerance.org> A valuable resource, which provides lessons, information, and other resources for all teachers. This site is useful when gathering information about diversity, bullying and much more.

<http://www.funbrain.com> This site has various games that the students can play to enhance their learning.

<http://www.spicenter.org> A great current events website for anyone who wants to keep updated with information relating to social justice.

www.Sparky.org-games, etc for and about fire safety

<http://www.factmonster.com> A wealth of information relating to a variety of subjects and topics for students and teachers.