

The Hornet Herald Newspaper

The Hornet Herald Newspaper is an after school activity that meets on Wednesdays and is open to all 7th and 8th grade students. Aspiring writers and technically savvy computer students are able to increase their skills in writing, interviewing and newspaper formatting, while earning honor points. Some of the regular features include: school news, sports and music updates, creative writing and entertainment.

The newspaper's motto is: "For the Students, About the Students, By the Students." All featured articles are written by the students, with publishing and technical assistance from staff members. The Hornet Herald is published five times per year. Contact Joey Kellogg or Sue Messerich for more information.
